

THE MYSTERY OF THE TRINITY

Many will be familiar with the story that when Saint Augustine was writing his treatise on the Holy Trinity he was reportedly walking on the seashore when he noticed a small boy filling a hole in the sand with sea water. Upon asking him what he was doing the boy replied "I am emptying the sea into this hole." Augustine told him this was impossible but the boy immediately responded, "I will complete my task before you solve the mystery of the Trinity".

"All that we are saying finally is that whenever we see love we see the Trinity." (Augustine – de trinitate Book 8)
